FIRE DESTROYS KITCHEN

Fire of unknown origin Sunday night gutted the kitchen in the rear of the restaurant on Eighth street, conducted by Will Green, colored. The fire did damage estimated at about $250, with no insurance. The property belonged to the Mebane estate.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To The Ladies of Paris and Bourbon County: The Lucy Arnold Shop, of Cincinnati, will have a display at the Windsor Hotel this Tuesday afternoon, and all day Wednesday.

Miss Louise Blynn, their designer, will be in charge. The display consists chiefly of dresses for small women and infants. You are invited to call.

NO GUN CLUB SHOOT WEDNESDAY

Owing to the shooters participating in the Blue Grass Championship shoot at the Hilltop Gun Club grounds yesterday and the opening of the dove-shooting season, which gives excellent practice to the shooters, the regular meeting of the Bourbon Gun Club, will not be held Wednesday. It was thought best to postpone the regular meeting until another date on account of the many side attractions for the week. Secretary Rudolph Davis asks all members to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT CLOSES

The five-days' tennis tournament for Bourbon county net artists, given under auspices of the Paris Community Service came to a close at noon Saturday when Miss Harriet Rogers defeated Miss Elizabeth Crutcher in the ladies' singles by scores of 6-4 and 7-5. Miss Rogers received a silver loving cup as her trophy. Miss Grace Cruickshanks, supervisor of playgrounds, acted in the capacity of referee. The men's singles was won Friday afternoon by Edward Nippert, of the Mammoth baseball team, who defeated C. Collier Daves, of the First National Bank, by scores of 6-2, 6-1 and 6-2. Many who witnessed this game considered it the best game of singles seen in Central Kentucky.

STILL SHOOTIN' AT US!

Editor Warren Fisher, of the Carlisle Mercury, possesses a tender spot (somewhere) evidenced by the steady stream of pot shots he takes at the condition of Paris streets. In the last issue of The Mercury is the following:

"Whatever slurs irritable motorists may cast upon the fair name of our neighbor, Paris, it must be admitted that the old town occupies a strategic position. Approaching her from any direction, one must negotiate shell-holes and craters, when the city limits are reached. Perhaps they feel over there, that once in, it is better to stay in rather than undertake the perils of crossing 'No Man's Land' again. The good people of Bourbon county have long been noted for their hospitality."

THE PLAN THAT MAKES SAVING EASY

Any one can become a member of this Association at any time by paying the initiation fee of $1.00 per share.

To take one share of stock, which represents $100, the cost is as follows: Initiation fee $1.00, and first weeks dues 25 cents, in all, $1.25, and 25 cents per week thereafter. Any number of shares between 1 and 100 would cost in the same proportion. Dues may be paid monthly, or as far in advance as the member desires.

Mortgage loans are made at the rate of $100 for each share of stock and the rate of interest charged is 6%, payable at the rate of 12 1/2 cents per week for each $100 for 48 weeks per year.

Shares may be cancelled and the payments, together with all earnings credited, be withdrawn at any time if the member so desires.

—Mrs. James L. Dodge entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. L. Yerkes, of Pasadena, Cal. Mrs. Yerkes was a member of the Six-hand Euchre Club when she lived in Paris, so this was a delightful reunion of the members of the club.

—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dyche, of London, Ky., motored to Paris and spent from Saturday to Monday as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin and Judge and Mrs. Ernest Martin. Mr. Dyche is editor and publisher of the London Sentinel, one of the best papers in the State.

—Mr. and Mrs. James G. Metcalfe and Miss Elizabeth Steele, of Paris, attended the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Stoll, of Lexington, Friday night, at the country home of Mrs. Stoll's mother, Mrs. John M. Markey, on the Versailles pike. During the intermission a dainty ice course was served, the ices being moulded in fruits and flowers.

—Miss Elsie Morrison entertained Saturday afternoon with a picture show party. After the show the party went to Mrs. Clyde Keller's home, on High street, and were served delightful refreshments. Miss Morrison's guests were Misses Mary Spears, Louise Dailey, Nancy Keith Snyder (Louisville), Anne Jouett Davis (Louisville), Julia Lavin, Rebecca Collier, Nell Winn Hinton, Hillary Davis and Susan Howard.

—Coleman Renick, of Paris, who last week received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the University of Chicago, has accepted a position as instructor of geology in the University of Iowa, at Iowa City, and will assume his duties about September 15. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Renick, of Paris, accompanied Mr. Renick, and were present to witness the conferring of the degree.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Judy gave a family dinner last night at their home on the Hume and Bedford road, in compliment to her brother and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. James William Waller, and the latter's guardian, Mr. Theodore T. Artaud, of Washington City, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Jos. M. Hall entertained the same guests with a picnic supper at Boonesboro Sunday evening.

—The following party of Bourbon county people who have been in camp for some time at Verdun, Ky., have returned to their homes: Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bedford, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Haley, Mr. and Mrs. James Estes, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bedford, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Haley, Mr. and Mrs. James Estes, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Galtskill, Mrs. M. V. —Miss Virginia Morrison will leave to-day for Winchester, where she will enter the Kentucky Wesleyan College as a student for the coming term.

—A card from Dr. Martha Petree, who is visiting in Kirkville, Mo., to THE NEWS says, in part: "We made the trip here, about 750 miles, in three days. Everywhere there seemed to be a warm spot in people's hearts for our Kentucky license. We enjoyed the overland trip very much, and are meeting many friends here who seem so glad to see us. Please let THE NEWS come to us at 514 West Pierce Street, Kirkville, Mo."

—The barge party given last Thursday on the Kentucky river under the auspices of the Jimmie Johnson Chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Cassius M. Clay, regent, was a decided success, netting them the sum of $90. About one hundred and fifty made the trip, spending a most enjoyable day on the river. The success of the trip is largely due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Clay, who was ably assisted by members of the Chapter. The proceeds will be used as a nucleus of a fund to be raised for erecting a marker at the grave of Squire Boone, brother of Daniel Boone, Kentucky's pioneer, which has been located near Little Rock, this county, and to place a memorial tablet in the court house in Paris.

—One of the most delightful social events of the season was the five hundred party given by Miss Anna May Young, at the home of her grandfather, J. G. Redmon, near Paris. —Mrs. J. S. Roberts was the charming hostess at her home, "Glen Iris," in the country, Saturday afternoon, to a bridge party in honor of the lovely bride of the family, Mrs. James William Waller, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Chas. Hall Ferguson, of Georgetown. The home, which is one of the most beautiful in the county, was especially lovely for this occasion. Lovely young matrons and lovely young girls beautifully gowned, added to the beauty of the home and party. Two prizes were given. The guest of honor received a Bohemian glass cologne bottle. The highest score was made by Mrs. Earl Ferguson, of Georgetown, who received a lovely Betty Wales chain. After the game a delicious two-course supper was served, a salad course and individual ices and cakes. Mrs. Roberts' guests, besides the guests of honor, were: Mesdames Jas. A. Orr, Du-rand Whipple, James Duncan Bell, Benjamin Forsythe Buckner, J. M. Hall, Jas. W. Thompson, C. G. Daugherty, Jas. H. Thompson, Harold Harris, Withers Davis, Edward Prichard, V. W.
